

POPE TO HAVE NEW AUTO TUNNEL CONNECTING SUMMER VILAS

WILL BE HALF MILE IN LENGTH

Pontiff Can Then Reach Palaces Without Riding Through Crowded Streets

By ANDRUE BERDING, Associated Press Staff Writer, Castel Gandolfo, Italy, Nov. 18 (AP)—Construction will start shortly on a tunnel suitable for automobiles to connect the old Papal villa, Castel Gandolfo, with the Villa Barberini, recently acquired by the Holy See through the Lateran treaty of 1929.

The Pope XI with the tunnel should be able to reach the villa in 10 to 15 minutes. The tunnel will be half a mile long, wide enough for two automobiles to pass and will have room for pedestrians. It will eliminate the necessity of the pontiff driving through the congested little town.

An underground passageway now exists, but is large enough only for pedestrians, and long since fallen into disuse.

CONCRETE REPAIRS PLANNED
Construction of the new tunnel will be only one of the needed repairs of the villa. The villa is in great need of rebuilding. The pope recently ordered the villa to be repaired in summer following the festival here in 1929 and the late Cardinal Merry Del Val was the only cardinal to live there, and he only briefly.

It is now little more than a gold and red museum, but reminiscent of Pope Pius IX, last pontiff to visit it. The villa was built by the pope, there, dining and sleeping rooms, even the bed in which he died, carried back there from the Vatican.

The villa is falling off the walls, there are no sanitary conveniences, no bathrooms, and with the villa occupied by Cardinal Merry Del Val as fitted with electric lights, modernize the villa.

WILL MODERNIZE HOTEL
The villa is in a state of decay and the pope himself has been at the villa. Work already has begun at the villa. The villa is in a state of decay and the pope himself has been at the villa. The villa is in a state of decay and the pope himself has been at the villa.

CITY MANAGER QUITS JOB IN FALL RIVER

Fall River, Nov. 18.—The resignation of City Manager Ed ward T. Harrington, effective at the end of this year, is the latest development in Fall River's financial crisis.

With the city government having defaulted on two notes for a total of $1,600,000 and no funds on hand to meet a third note for $200,000 due soon, the mill city is technically broke.

In tendering his resignation, City Manager Harrington expressed confidence that the city would be able to meet its obligations within a few days.

MILLION DUE CITY

This optimistic view was also held today by City Treasurer John J. Quinn, who said that approximately $1,000,000 in corporation and income taxes, coming to the city from the State, would be utilized to meet part of Fall River's $1,600,000 underbills.

Quinn said that the $1,000,000 check, which probably be diverted to that purpose.

According to authorities on municipal finance, the outboarders have the right to go to the State House and demand the tax check, or might even attach city property.

Since the credit of the State Government, however, is behind all its cities and since there is no way for Fall River to extricate itself from its present dilemma, the outboarders are assured full protection. There is no question as to the city's solvency.

DEPRESSION BLAMED

It is anticipated that authority may be sought from the Legislature to issue a refunding loan of $2,000,000 to cover matured indebtedness.

The depressed situation in the textile industry is responsible for the city government's financial straits. Some mills have gone out of business and the city, having taken mill property in default of taxes, has been unable to sell it.

Critics of the city government assert that, instead of reducing valuations, valuations have been kept up and the city has over-borrowed on its tax capacity.

AIR SMUGGLING RING BARED

Detroit, Nov. 18 (AP).—The operation of the aerial smuggling syndicate whose air fleets brought liquor and skins from Canada to the United States were revealed today with the indictment of ten men by the federal grand jury.

According to the information held by the government, the syndicate operated 30 planes for smuggling of liquor and skins from Canada in remote landing fields in the United States.

Although the operations of the syndicate were confined for the most part to the Detroit area, government investigators said that planes landed throughout in the vicinity of cities in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

Evidence on which the indictments were based was obtained by undercover agents who joined the syndicate and worked with the smugglers for weeks.

500 Paris Waiters in Merry Race With Laden Trays

Paris, Nov. 18 (AP).—Each with a tray of bottles, glasses, and a glass of water, 500 waiters, dressed in white, were engaged in a merry race in the Grand Hotel, Paris, today. The race was won by a waiter who dashed off madly at the starting gun in the Grand Hotel.

There came a great deal of excitement and a great deal of laughter on the slippery streets in efforts to save their trays while competitors were convulsed with laughter. Most of the runners, however, upheld the ancient traditions of their calling and bravely held their trays, pausing and puffing, with trays still balanced on their left hands.

Interne Insane After Error Brings Death to 16 Tots

Medellin, Colombia, Nov. 18.—Gonzalo Ramirez, young charity hospital interne, was hopelessly insane today as a result of the ghastly blunder he made in administering diphtheria germs to 49 children, resulting in the death of 16 of them. The remaining 33 children are still alive, but physicians admit few, if any, can survive. Parents of the stricken children stormed the hospital, known as Casa Cuna, last night. A police guard was about the place to prevent the enraged fathers and mothers from attempting to kill the hospital doctors and attendants. Before he became a ravaging man, due to the horror of his unintentional error, Ramirez explained that he was injecting anti-toxin into the children's blood, instead of using the vaccine he took by mistake a shot of deadly diphtheria virus. Ramirez had just completed his training and was expecting to begin private practice.

KENTUCKY BANK CLOSINGS LAID TO GOSSIP

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 18 (AP)—Eight Kentucky financial institutions with resources totaling more than $25,000,000 were closed today.

The largest is the National Bank of Kentucky at Louisville, which is under the control of a receiver, Paul C. Keyes, of the staff of the controller of the currency at Washington. Its resources approach $1,000,000.

Director of the National Bank of Kentucky said the suspension yesterday was deemed necessary because of "wild rumors" concerning its condition. Simultaneously with its closing two affiliated organizations, the Louisville Trust Co. and the Security Bank, suspended operations. Their directors said they were closed as a precautionary measure. The three institutions are affiliated through the Eastern Kentucky Bank, a holding company.

Officers of other leading Louisville banks have issued statements declaring yesterday's deposits were greater than the withdrawals and that new accounts were opened.

FILM KIDNAPING SCARE DENIED

Beverly Hills, Cal., Nov. 18 (AP)—Although new watchmen have been posted at the Harold Lloyd and Mary Pickford estates here a triple denial was made today that the change in guards had anything to do with a purported plot to kidnap the two film daughters and the 15-year-old niece of Mary Pickford.

Joseph Reddy, representing Harold Lloyd, and M. A. McKay, business manager for Mary Pickford, said reports concerning a kidnapping plot were erroneous. Their statements later were supported by Police Chief Charles Blum.

Blum was quoted as saying the girls were posted as a precautionary measure.

Chief Blum explained the guard presence by saying he had obtained one member of his department to aid at each home until the situation could be regularly employed.

Boston Post Road Lone Wolf Has Chance for His Life

Bridgewater, Ct., Nov. 18 (AP)—Serge Amos Anderson, known as the "lone wolf" of the Boston Post Road, because of his sharp patroling of that highway and his series of encounters with van runners, was making a strong fight for his life in Stamford hospital today.

Anderson suffered four bullet wounds early Monday, when a man "fired from a car he had stopped and opened fire. A surgeon's bulletin today said Anderson was holding his own. Two bullets inflicted wounds in his groin and thigh, while two grazed him.

DRUG INCREASE CITED IN PLAN FOR PARLEY

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—Mentioning propositions of the traffic in drugs in Latin America as revealed here today will make a Pan-American narcotics conference an immediate necessity, it was believed in authoritative circles.

Increases in importations of morphine, heroin, cocaine and other drugs, and the consequent increase in the sale of these drugs, as shown by figures published by the League of Nations advisory drug committee.

The figures go as far back as 1925. Reports for 1929 are incomplete, but they differ very slightly from the reports for preceding years.

The drugs imported were divided into the following main classes: Raw opium, medicinal opium, morphine and salts of morphine, cocaine and salts of cocaine, and other drugs.

The reports reveal:
1.—The major drug exports from Europe to the Americas are directed to Central or South American ports.
2.—Lack of co-ordinate legislation enables traffickers to take advantage of the varying legislative loopholes to smuggle drugs into the country.

3.—Several of the South American countries are reluctant to forward statistics to the Geneva organization because of the apathy toward the drug problem generally displayed by the representative of the countries.
4.—Restrictive measures adopted by the League committee fall short of their objective in Latin and North America because of the inadequacy of the measures to Latin-American conditions.

5.—Restrictive measures adopted by the League committee fall short of their objective in Latin and North America because of the inadequacy of the measures to Latin-American conditions.

SPORTSMAN IS KIDNAPED BY GANGSTERS

Tulsa, Okla., Nov. 18 (AP)—The Tulsa Post says George H. Hartford, wealthy Tulsa sportsman and widely known as a bookmaker throughout the southwest, was kidnaped from his country estate near Tulsa Sunday night by armed gangsters who presumably are holding him for ransom.

Two armed men forced Hartford into an automobile and spirited him away, the newspaper says, in the presence of a caretaker, a Negro maid, and Mrs. Hartford, whose life was threatened when she pleaded to be permitted to accompany her husband. No report of the kidnapping was made to police.

Plans were made last January to kidnap Hartford, according to Nelson J. Moore, night police chief. He said the alleged extortionists were then believed to have come from St. Louis. The plot reached Hartford's ears when one of his associates was approached with an offer to participate in the abduction.

Hartford, who has lived in Tulsa for several years, has the reputation of being a "square gambler." He is the president and was one of the organizers of the Magic City Kennel Club, considered one of the largest dog racing tracks in the United States.

'BOSSY' IS RILED BY ENEMIES
Newburyport, Nov. 18—Mayor Andrew J. "Bossy" Gillis was on the warpath today because his appointment of an unincorporated committee, composed chiefly of his political enemies, was treated as a joke by the man he named as chairman.

In the present, this intelligent attitude of "Bossy" may be another of his little jokes. He is in the city, who think the appointment made him wince by his enemies.

Frederic Smith, one of the owners of a local newspaper, who was named by the mayor as chairman of the committee, which he is treating the unemployment situation as a joke. He has no comprehension of the dignity of the office or the responsibility of devoting on him to take a broad step in relieving need.

Only nine appeared for the meeting of the committee, which "Bossy" called for last night, and the mayor said it was because the list had not been printed in full. "I'm going to demand to know the list was not printed," he said. "I'm going to demand to know the list was not printed."

These who attended last night's meeting at City Hall were City Councilor Moses E. Wright, Arthur Smith, Eugene Twomey and William Peabody, and Dennis Haggerty, local banker, all considered political enemies of the mayor, and City Councilor Harold McWilliams.

Clark MacDonald of the welfare department, Overseer of the Poor Timothy Murphy and City Solicitor John J. Kelly, who are not on the committee list.

Edgar Van Etten, Rail Official, Dies

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 18 (AP)—Edgar Van Etten, 67, former vice-president of the New York Central Railroad, died here yesterday.

At a public conference of business men with the special commission on taxation, Senator E. F. Fisher, chairman, said that because of these conditions and opposition, the commission would not be further effort to revise the tax laws before 1932.

He said that Boston Tax Payors Association is making a similar study of tax laws and that the commission would await the report of the association, "which has plenty of money behind it."

R. A. McClinton congratulated the association on its stand and said it would meet the approval of all business men.

At the same time the 41st annual conference of Massachusetts Association was held at the Gardner Auditorium, where James J. Connelley, Cambridge, chairman of the association's legislative committee, urged the assembly to keep in touch with work of the legislative commission.

In its report last year the commission recommended reduction in the tax on salary, wage and business income from 1 1/2 to 1 per cent, setting of the rate on dividends from 8 to 6 per cent, elimination of the corporate excess tax, substitution of a 4 per cent tax on income of the corporation.

Nothing came of the recommendation, however, because of the opposition.

Evening Gowns Revive 1830 Mood

By ANN ARDEN

MODERN EVENING gowns are so different from those of 1830 that it is almost impossible to believe that they are the same. The gowns of 1830 were long and full, with high necks and long sleeves. The gowns of today are short and slim, with low necks and short sleeves. The gowns of 1830 were made of heavy materials, such as silk and satin. The gowns of today are made of light materials, such as chiffon and tulle.

British Earl Loses Court Fight Over 6-Cent Taxi Bill

By ANN ARDEN

THE BRITISH EARL, who has been fighting a court case over a 6-cent taxi bill, has lost his case. The earl had argued that the 6-cent bill was unreasonable and that he should be allowed to pay a higher rate. The court, however, ruled in favor of the 6-cent bill and the earl must now pay the 6-cent bill.

LATE RALLY WIPEs OUT EARLY STOCK LOSSES

New York, Nov. 18.—A late rally served to erase early declines of 1 to 3 points in Wall Street today and sent prices generally above yesterday's close.

Buying of the rubber shares in the last hour lifted U. S. Rubber and Goodrich 2 points and Goodrich

Allied Chemical, American Can, Bessie Rosebuck and Electric Power & Light advanced 2 net and U. S. Steel, General Electric, Wausau, Texas Corp. and Montgomery Ward rose a point or more above the previous close.

TRADING IS LIGHT

Trading was light, total sales running around 2,000,000 shares.

The market appeared to be marking time, pending clearer signs of the trend in commodity prices. Efforts to stabilize wheat, copper and steel prices are being watched in Wall st. with keen interest.

The stock market now has a substantial technical rebound after its two-month decline, and a secondary reaction of fair proportions occurs.

WHEN CHARLSTOWN Jack Donahue said, "This is my game," he was talking about the dancing and theatrical life. It proved to be just what Jack said it was, for from the time he received $15 a week for his dancing specialty at the Nickelodeon in Boston he progressed swiftly, for he was soon to get $1000 a week from Keith's and then $2500 from Dillinger's. Later $4000 a week from Ziegfeld for his work in "Rosalie." Four of the feminine stage stars who shared in his triumphs were Mary Milburn, Norma Terris, Marilyn Miller and Lily Damita, the latter starring in Jack's last show.

Port of Boston

Proposed abolition of the general average clause in connection with the transportation of goods by ocean carriers, and the separation of terminal charges and line haul rates to ports, are important matters affecting the port to be taken up at the annual meeting of the Industrial Traffic League in New York city Thursday and Friday.

The league is made up of many carriers and executives of important industrial and transportation concerns throughout the United States. William P. Laby, chairman of the league, said that the meeting of the Maritime Association of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, will attend.

FISH FIER JAMMED

Held in port until the storm clears today, a fleet of fishing vessels have crowded the Fish Pier, forcing many to seek moorings at other terminals. The weather is so bad that the vessels are unable to get out to sea.

CARGO DAMAGE

Boston importers with cargo on the Kola Line, Dutch, are speculating as to extent that their shipments were damaged when a dispatch to the Maritime Commission from London stated that she had sprung a leak near Port Said, where she was surveyed and allowed to proceed. There was damage to cargo, the dispatch stated.

OCEAN WEATHER

Fresh winds, mostly from the east and southeast, with light weather, with occasional rain and fog in the Grand Banks, will make the European trip of those who leave Boston today and who sail westward according to the ocean forecast.

CHINA CLAY

China clay, 4500 tons of it, was being loaded on the ship, which was chartered by and at Portland, Me., for the Atlantic Coast, when it was hit by a storm and was forced to return to New Bedford from Fowey.

SHIP AROUND

Steamer Harry Brown, formerly the Boston steamer Norfolk, once owned by the Consolidated Transportation Co. of Boston, is aground off Cape Cod. The ship is owned by the Boston Ship Co. and is being towed by a tugboat from New Bedford with 5000 tons of coal. Coast Guard vessels are going to the scene.

CHIEF BACK

When a woman takes to the land he takes to it in earnest. Capt. William H. Muller, commander of the Eastern division of the Coast Guard, said that he was not surprised when he learned that a woman had taken to the land. He said that he had been told that a woman had taken to the land and he was not surprised when he learned that she had.

very much disturbed for fear of his becoming his hat."

He saw the joke
But they got the money

The old god found him in New York. The trail of a Charleston led unswervingly to the star-dusted dressing room of the theater where Jack Donahue was singing.

Sometimes they were there for "fourth."

Four of the old gods who went to New York to see a fight and went broke on the result danced again from one act to the New American Theater.

"We need right hugging," they told him. "There isn't railroad fare for me between New York and Boston."

Jack grinned—and produced. "It's a funny thing," he said, "that you fellows never seem to get used to me. I don't know between Boston and New York. I can remember the days when we used to make it on the freight or hopping rides. You fellows aren't stopping, are you?"

He was an easy "touch" for an old timer or a "fool." He was "quick money" for the old timers by the bank.

A director of the Lanza Club, Coast Guard at headquarters, was operating at that organization. "You fellows," he said, "are not with his show, he'd get back if possible, at his own expense, to do his last fight."
